Nanaimo is experiencing growth and development like never before. Contributing to this success is a community of dedicated people working toward excellence, achievements and innovation in our community. The Sterling Awards expands the scope of recognition of achievement and impact. The categories allow for recognition of the contribution of individuals as well as both large and small businesses. This is your opportunity to recognize and celebrate our outstanding citizens and businesses. If you know of a business or individual worthy of being considered for one of the awards, we invite you to complete a nomination form and send it in.
